

Commercial Metal Forming Privacy Policy

Commercial Metal Forming has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy. We respect your privacy and use industry standard encryption technology to protect your personal details. Please read the following about the information gathering and privacy practices for our web site. By using this site, you consent to the collection, use, and storage of your personal information as described in this policy. We reserve the right to report to law enforcement agencies any activities that we reasonably believe to be unlawful.

INFORMATION COLLECTION AND USE

Commercial Metal Forming is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Commercial Metal Forming may collect your e-mail address and other information in the contact form. We consider your personal information highly confidential and will not pass it on to anyone outside Commercial Metal Forming, resellers and distributors, except where required to do so by law or to prevent a crime or the violation of our customer contract. In the case that Commercial Metal Forming sold substantially all of its assets or was acquired (or went out of business or entered bankruptcy), customer information is typically one of the business assets that is transferred in connection with such a transaction. You acknowledge that such transfers may occur and that any acquiror of Commercial Metal Forming may continue to use your personal information as set forth in this policy.

When you connect to our web site, our web servers recognize your IP address and certain other information about your computer. This is necessary to deliver downloaded products to you, administer the web server; and track down problems. Commercial Metal Forming also uses what are called "cookies" to store and retrieve customer information through a user's web browser. This permits the Commercial Metal Forming site to serve you more effectively. Usage of a cookie is in no way linked to any personally identifiable information while on our site. You can refuse cookies by turning them off in your browser. You do not need to have cookies turned on to use any part of this web site.

We also may collect general demographic and profile data at our web site from time to time in order to better understand and assist our customers and to help improve our site. This data is used only in anonymous form and does not identify you or your personal details.

SECURITY

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. We use industry standard SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) encryption to protect your privacy and account details. All your ordering information, including your name, address and credit card numbers, is encrypted using a secure server for maximum security. Your credit card and billing information cannot be read as it travels to our ordering system. To ensure that your information is even more secure, once we receive your credit card information, we store it on a server that is not accessible from the Internet.

OTHER SITES

This site contains links to other sites. We have no control over and are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of any of these web sites or any other web sites.

POLICY CHANGES

Commercial Metal Forming may update this policy from time to time. Please check this page periodically for changes. By using this web site, you signify your agreement to the then current Commercial Metal Forming Privacy Policy.
